

FINDING INDEXES

Complete alphabetical indexes of all the Car Models and separate Units covered in this Manual appear on the following pages.

The Car Model index lists the page number on which the wiring diagram and complete data for each car is located and also indicates the Units installed on each particular model. Often some special detail of a car's electrical equipment is wanted quickly. This need has been most successfully met by a unique double page "cross reference" plan of indexing. Reading across each two opposite pages, all the separate equipment items of every individual car model are listed, making it possible to find everything instantly. Note: Whenever the data on a car model is not completed on one page, it is always carried over onto the opposite page, placing all the data on any car directly before the eyes.

There is, in this Manual, a vast array of maintenance data, but for practical usage it is not desirable to give separate treatment to all of the thousands of items covered in the Manual. Such facts are found included with the complete data on each individual Car Model, and the Equipment Index discloses their position in the Manual. The more typical equipment units and devices are given complete separate treatment. They are to be found in the EQUIPMENT SECTION and are listed in the Equipment Index with the key letter "E."

All the systems, devices and different types of equipment covered in the Manual are listed alphabetically in the EQUIPMENT INDEX. It is common practice to send out for servicing, generators or starters that have been detached from cars. The Equipment Index instantly refers to the page on which the data covering the adjustment or repair of such units is found.

NOTE:—SEPARATE INDEXES for NEW CAR MODELS are issued with each Supplement.
